

Trouvaille Discoveries Has Your Next Vacation Waiting for You...

By Sarah Ellen Hoeb Nunes

We all have those friends that are always prepared and organized; sometimes they are referred to as the Pinterest Moms or Disney Moms. You know, the one who has the color-coded binder, laminated park maps, and snack strategy down to the pepperoni and cheeseburger spring rolls. That is Melissa Odom. She became that mom—the one who knew the best time to ride Space Mountain, how to get a virtual queue spot every time. She could score the hardest dining reservations while also knowing exactly what path to take to make it to the rope drop just in time. She became a pro at planning trips.

Eventually, Melissa found her friends and family asking, "Can you plan our trip, too?" Over time, after a spreadsheet here and a screenshot there, she realized it wasn't an accident. This was her calling. Now Melissa takes that same passion and magic to craft unforgettable trips for others, creating vacations without the stress and with way more fun.

For two and a half years, Melissa Odom has been operating her business, Trouvaille Discoveries (pronounced "tru-vi"). She believes that travel isn't just a luxury, "Traveling is a powerful way to connect, grow, and create lasting memories. Through Trouvaille Discoveries, I help busy professionals, families, and groups experience the world without the stress of planning. In doing so, I contribute to the local and global economies, promote cultural understanding, and help people step outside of their daily routines to experience something truly extraordinary."

Melissa has a strong background in financial consulting and corporate travel management. She has combined that expertise in strategic planning, budgeting, and customer service to build a thriving travel business. Melissa explains, "As the owner of Trouvaille Discoveries, I specialize in crafting seamless, customized travel experiences—whether for business retreats, luxury vacations, or family getaways."

"My corporate background has given me a keen understanding of efficiency, cost optimization, and the value of exceptional service. I bring this same attention to detail to every client, ensuring personalized itineraries that balance quality, convenience, and unforgettable experiences. From corporate incentives, luxury cruises, and all-inclusive resorts, to expertly planned corporate retreats, I am committed to making travel stress-free and extraordinary. Let's connect and turn your travel dreams into reality."

Travel isn't just about where you go, but also how it makes you feel. Melissa clarifies, "It is rooted in the idea that every journey should be as rewarding as the destination. That means creating experiences that are intentional, enriching, and accessible, without unnecessary stress or inflated costs. I approach travel planning with the same care, precision, and integrity I once applied in the corporate world—blending strategic thinking with a deep commitment to personal service. I believe everyone deserves the chance to explore the world in a way that feels both luxurious and effortless."

Melissa has a mission that is more than just planning travel for people; it is also about connecting people to experiences that bring them joy, deepen relationships, and open hearts to the world. In every itinerary she builds, she carries the spirit of service, family, and the belief that even the smallest details can make the biggest impact.

Melissa is married to an incredibly supportive man, Billy. Melissa's son, Gabriel, serves as Melissa's resident Gen Z translator. They all share their home with Roxy, a sweet, blue pix mix rescue dog who is as loyal as she is spoiled. Melissa says, "My family puts up with more than anyone should have to, and I'm endlessly grateful. Gabriel keeps me current, and Billy keeps me grounded. Together, they remind me every day why I do what I do."
